STARK CO. DEMOCRAT. (Issued Tuesday and Friday.)

Semi-Weekly per year by mail..$1.00 THE NEWS-DEMOCRAT PUB. CO. Canton, Ohio.

DAILY NEWS-DEMOCRAT.

Daily delivered by carrier. .6c per week Daily delivered by mail...10c per week Daily per year, by mail.....$5.00

THE NEWS-DEMOCRAT is the only

paper in Stark County receiving its news over its own leased wire, printing from a stereotype perfecting press and the only paper in Canton owning its own building.

Another Boycott Threatened. Another boycott is threatened the News-Democrat. This time it is the result of the publication of the news raid and the subsequent exposures. Some soft-pated individuals have announced that their business friends and associates will refuse to advertise with a paper that does not suppress news that happens to be prejudicial to the gambling rooms.

As the Canton Brewing company, which is reported to own the building where one of the leading "parlors" is run, has already declared war on the News-Democrat for presuming to publish Mr. John Danner's semi-monthly contributions on "legalized evils," it other business firm sufficiently inter-However, this is a good occasion to say a few words about the policy of on a train some distance behind the the News-Democrat, in printing all the news.

In the first place: The News-Dem-It is too busy serving the public in its seemed to me to be about as high as capacity as a news-gatherer. But it the telegraph poles beside the track, isn't afraid to publish the news, which, as you doubtless know, are not Whether it hurts a gambler or a fur- so high as telegraph poles in the city. niture dearels, a city official oranambi- Then came a cloud of dense black tious architect-the News-Democrat will publish facts and run its own business.

body is compelled to advertise in the fit for nothing much but the scrap News-Democrat. The advertiser who heap when it fell to the ground. The buys space should do so because he crown sheet over the firebox had blown feels he is getting value received on the investment.

It is extremely doubtful whether any paper that dares mention the fact ing of the boiler." that they are running, would care to pose before the community in that attitude. If asked to publicly express octon, who is prominent in the senthemselves they would probably de- sational divorce case now on trial in cline on the plea that "It might hurt that city, is a cousin of Attorney Atlee business."

Nobody ever advanced the theory that the gambling room was any par- Beebee sued his wife for divorce and ticular boom to a community or the named as co-respondents a dozen or merchants thereof, anyway.

jecting to the publicity the News-Dem- ser. ocrat is giving the Court street gambling rooms come out in the open and state their objections? Do they care to have the community know the position they are taking? Any merchant who cares to state his objections, over divorce cases may grow out of the his own signature, shall be given all revelations that have been made. the space he wants in the News-Dem-

Congressman Tayler is recorded as not voting on the oleomargarine bill. He was paired last week with Mr. Bartlett, of Georgia. Mr. Bartlett first voted for the bill, and then, remembering his pair with Mr. Tayler, who was not present, withdrew his vote and was recorded as present, but not

The Salem News heads its report of the suicide, in Pittsburg, of Mary Haley, a Salem girl, with the legend, in hig black letters: "She Tired of Salem, then Tired of Life." What wonder-the poor thing.

The Pittsburg Post publishes on its first age a portrait cut of Congressnen Tayler, and under it the explana-"He wants to be governor of NOMINATING JUDGE TAYLOR. Carrollton Republican-Standard.) ability and sterling worth of I. H. Taylor have long been ised, and now that he has been requested to become a candidate for congress in the McKinley district will be received with gratification by the Taylor was not given another term on the common pleas bench, for no judge was ever more deservedly popular with the people of our county than he. Skilled in law, fair in his rulings, correct in his decisions, always courteous in his address and dignified in his demeanor he filled their ideal of the occupant of the judicial bench, If Hon. R. W. Tayler, of Columbiana, is to have an immediate successor in congress his mantle could fall on no abler man than Judge Isaac H. Taylor. It will be remembered that on one occasion, after serving one term in congress, Judge Taylor courteously stepped aside to make way for William McKinley. The act was an unselfish one which the people of the district have honored and appreciated.

HAD A VERY BAD DREAM.

(Shreve News.) Ben Pocock on Saturday night dreamed that his hat had fallen over fence. He made an attempt to get it, but could not, of course, as is always the case in dreams. A fellow appeared and kicked the top out of the cady and that riled Ben and he kicked the bedpost with all the force he could summon. As a result his big toe is about three times its normal size. Ben was awakened by the shock.

WHAT IS IT? (Alliance Review.) Operator Will Doyle, who has been "grouchy" the past week with the "prevailing epidemic," is feeling better today.

CHARLES' APPROACH. (Pittsburg Times.) Mr. Schwab is now pulling for the

CHAT ABOUT PERSONS.

of the recent Court street gambling How It Feels to See a Locomotive Blow Up---Canton Folk on the Go.

> ever saw a locomotive blow up," said his brother, Joseph Schwab, and a Jacob Smith, a representative of the large party of friends. He declined to Goss Printing Press company, of Chi- discuss his trip or the annual meetcago, in the Barnett lobby last night ing of the steel corporation which "Generally the men who witness the takes place at Hoboken this afternoon. explosion of a steam engine are se dead when the smoke has cleared away that they are never able to give an account of the disaster.

"Like many other accidents, the one I saw was the result of carelessnesslow water in the boiler-for the engine would seem hardly possible to find any had just come from the shops and was in complete repair. It was on the ested to take sides in the matter. Baltimore and Ohio railroad in West Virginia a number of years ago. I was locomotive which exploded and was looking ahead out of the car window, so that the ill fated engine was immediately before my eyes. Suddenly ocrat doesn't indulge in "crusades." I saw the machine rise in the air. It smoke and dust, which hid the engine from view, and almost simultaneously I heard the roar of the explosion.

"Both the engineer and the fireman That's firstly. And secondly: No- were killed, and the locomotive was out.

"The strange thing about the explosion was that no white steam was seen. You know that perfectly dry Tuscarawas street, died Monday mornof these business men who are al- steam is invisible, being like air, and ing after a lingering illness from leged to be championing the cause of before it had time to condense it was dropsy. gaming rooms to the extent of threat- probably smothered by the cloud of ening to withdraw business from a smoke and dust raised by the burst- long member of the First Reformed

Attorney W. R. Pomerene, of Cosh-Pomerene, of Canton. The case is the most sensational ever known in the history of Coshocton county. Frank more prominent citizens of that city, among them ex-Senator Forbes, Mayor Will the business men who are ob- Cassingham and ex-Councilman Gos-

> So many of the high society citizens are implicated that the Coshocton Age and other papers never mention the case, but the correspondents of out-oftown journals are sending out the news. It is not improbable that other

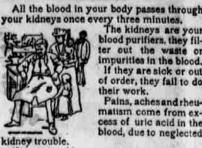

Fred B. Schallar has been elected delegate to the Canton Central Labor council to represent the Watch Case Engravers' union, local No. 3. Mr. Schallar is a Jersey man. In 1883 he assisted in organizing L. A. No. 3401. K. of L., Brooklyn, and later was an active labor worker in Newark. In an immense capacity and when once Philadelphia he lost his position three under way will make rapid inroads uptimes by organizing the engravers on the great mass of orders, which are against the Keystone shop, to abolish now on hand waiting to be filled. the contract system. He is now employed at the Dueber works as an engraver; is a good Elk and a sterling Democrat.

PUBLIC SALE.

The 240 acre farm of Jacob Hum-pert, situated in Green township, Summit county, three miles south-west of Greensburg, will again be offered for sale, on Saturday, March 1st, 1902, at 1 o'clock p. m. The former sale was withdrawn. Terms as heretofore. HUMPHREY MOHLER, Admr.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood

your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fall to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail Home of Swamp-Root. free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

SCHWAB ARRIVES.

Trust President Has Landed.

New York, Feb. 17.-Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel corporation, returned from Europe today on the American liner St. Paul, after an absence of two months when he landed by his father and "I am one of very few persons who mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schwab;

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has rectly upon the blood and mucous building up the constitution and ascurative powers, that they offer One the amount he has to pay $121. Hundred Dollars for any case that it

Address, F. J. CHENY & CO., To-

Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

THE DEATH RECORD.

MRS. FREDRICA LENHART.

Mrs. Fredrica Lenhart, wife of Christopher Lenhart, of 1009 East

Mrs. Lephart was an almost lifechurch and was most highly respected in the community in which she lived She was also a prominent member of the Ladies' Aid society and on ac count of her death the social celebrat ing the 21st anniversary of that organization which was to have been given Tuesday night, will be postponed until Friday evening. She leaves a husband and one son, the latter residing in California.

Funeral services will be held at the First Reformed church Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the Rev. F. C. Nau officiating.

WORKS NOT RUNNING

Carnahan Stamping Works Will Not be Placed in Active Operation Before March 1.

Although overwhelmed with orders, Carnahan Stamping works were unable to begin operations Monday, owing to an inability to get some important machinery in position.

An official of the company said Monday that the factory would not be started until March 1. It will have Massillon Cemetery Concerned in a Case.

Side Show Proprietor Goes to Law Against the C., L. & W. Railway-Routine Matters.

Judge W. W. Hole, of Salem, whose duties generally consist of holding court at Lisbon, came to Canton Monday and went on the bench in court room No. 1 after the noon adjournment. Judge Ambler held court during the forenoon and then took his departure for Lisbon, where he will Canton, a new bond has been approved sit this week in the place of Judge and ordered. Hole. This arrangement was made to dispose of some cases in which Judge Hole had been interested as attorney before going on the bench.

Judge Hole took up the hearing of the case of Edward M. Shufelt against the Massillon Cemetery association and the First Presbyterian church of that city. When Shufelt's wife died, it was found that she had willed her property away from her husband. It was real estate valued at about $3,000. Half of it was given to the cemetery association and the other spent in travel on the continent and haif bequeathed to the church. The in England. He was accompanied by husband is the only heir, and he now his wife and sisterand was greeted comes into court in an attempt to have the will set aside. It is claimed that the wife was unduly influenced in making the will.

Attorney McLaughlin, of Massillon, and Judge Thayer, of Canton, represent the husband, while the cemetery association and the church are represented by Hemperly & Howells.

Andrew Feight has sued the City of Canton and Treasurer T. H. Smith. been able to cure in all its stages, and to stop the collection of certa'n street that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure improvement taxes that have been levis the only positive cure known to the led against his property on West medical fraternity. Catarrh being a Eighth street. The plaintiff claims constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh templated on West Eighth street, he Cure is taken internally, acting di-947. The lot is 50y200 feet. The assurfaces of the system, thereby de-stroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by was $484. He claims that he should tinized. sisting nature in doing its work. The have been assessed only upon the proprietors have so much faith in its frontage, or 50 feet, which would make

The city lost just such a case some fails to cure. Send for list of testi- time ago, the court holding that im- him. went on board. provements could be assessed against property but once and that upon the do so, the lot was to be considered passage from proved. The balance of the cost is to York at 9 o'clock. be paid by the taxpayers at large. P. Fawcett and T. attorneys for the plaintiff.

A SIDE-SHOW SUIT.

Frank Hildeman has sued the Cleveland. Lorain and Wheeling Railway company for $500 damages. He sets up in his petition, which was filed in common pleas court Monday, that last September he shipped a lot of show paraphernalia from Lorain to Chagrin Falls. It was started on Saturlay and was to have arrived at its destination on the Monday following, where an exhibition was to have been given at the fair. It did not arrive until more than a week after it ship ment, and the plaintiff claims that he was damaged in the amount named for which he asks judgment. Dan W Shetler represents the plaintiff to the action.

A BIG CLAIM.

The United Banking and Savings company has commenced an action against Eli L. Motts, the miller at Minerva, and his wife, his former partner, John W. Hahn, and others who claim to have some claim against Motts, or interest in his property, are made defendants.

The claims of the banking company aggregate $11,573, which with the interest due will exceed $12,000. This is secured by mortgages upon the mil property and other real estate at Minerva. In addition to the claims of the plaintiff in this action, there are other creditors for large amounts, one of them being the Wolf company of Pennsylvania. that secured a verdict for about $700 in the Stark county courts two weeks ago

The property in the hands of Motts. while considered valuable, will not nearly pay the amount of the c'alms. The plaintiff asked that the property be appraised and sold and the proceeds be applied to the liquidation of their Attorney E. S. Cook and the firm of Baldwin and Shields represent the bank in the action.

WANT THEIR INSURANCE.

George W. Whitfield and Edward O. Miller, of Canton, who have been doing business as the Canton Mattress company, have commenced an action against the Reliance Insurance com pany to collect $439 insurance that is claimed to be due on goods hurned in a building that they occupied in East Third street. The company was duly notified of the loss but has re-fused to pay the amount and the ac-tion was brought to compel it to do so. Attorneys Civin and Mong represent the plaintiff.

TO COLLECT NOTE.

William S. Garner has sued Daniel Rohrer to collect a note for $100. A U. Bordner is the attorney for the plaintiff.

PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of Jacob Lutz. of Jack son township, the fourth account has been filed.

Final account has been filed in the estate of Eliza Reigler, of Canton. Inventory and appraisement have been filed in the estate of J. H. Bennett, of Canton.

In the guardianship of Jennie and Verna Cochenour, of Canton, inventory has been filed.

In the estate of Margaret C. Evans. of Alliance, final account has been in the estate of John Ebic, of Marlboro township, private sale of land has been ordered. PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of Charles N. Frank, of Canton, the first account has been filed. In the estate of Sarah Hay, of Sugar Creek township, final account has been filed. In the estate of Frederick Hipp, of

In the estate of Henry Stimmel, of Canton, bond and requisition to reject claim has been filed.

In the estate of Calvin Nydy, of Life began to work Lake township, George Nydy has been on me. I flowed Lake township, George Nydy has been appointed administrator. In the estate of Alois Lothamer. of Canton, the first account of trustee has been filed.

Prince Gets Away from Southampton -- Due in New York Saturday.

Southampton, Feb. 17.-The Kronprinz Wilhelm arrived here Sunday time of which was five days. fifteen morning. Prince Henry's voyage to hours and forty-five minutes, made on England was uneventful.

At about half past ten the Isle of Wight and the forts of Portsmouth were sighted. It was a day of glor- 7:45 o'clock. If she should arrive at ious sunshine. With the band playing and with flags flying, the steamer made her way up Southampton waters to the dock. Here the North German Lloyd Steamship company, contrary to calculated from Cherbourg mole. Her the desire of Prince Henry, had taken time of passing Cherbourg mole would the most elaborate precautions.

At 1 o'clock the dock swarmed with policemen and detectives, and the

Prince Henry remained on the bridge of the steamer until the memdon, who came down here to welcome

Cherbourg, Feb. 175-The Kronprinz Wilhelm arrived in the roadstead at last all day, and there are prospects frontage, and that when necessary to 8:40 this evening, after a pleasant Southampton, The turned to face the street being im- stenmer resumed her journey for New celtively that there is ledicine for Woman's qual to Lydia E. Pinkhan ogotable Compound.

Letters Proving

PROFUSE PERIODS.

"I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegeta-bleCompoundabout three months ago, and cannot express the wonderful good to have done to be a control of the c it has done me. Menstruationswere Menstruations were so profuse as to leave me very weak for some time after.

Was also troubled with leucorrhœa, tired feeling, bearing-down sensation, pain across the back and thighs. I felt as though there was a heavy weight in my stomach all the time. I have taken two bottles of the medicine, and now have better feelight them. and now have better health than I have had for four years."

MRS. LIZZIE DICKSON HODGE,

Avalon, Ohio.

OHANGE OF LIFE.

was taken sick five years ago with 'The Grippe,' and had a relapse and on me. I flowed very badly until a year ago, then my stomach and lungs got so bad, I suffered terribly; the blood went up in mylungs and stomach, and I vomited it up. I could not eau scarcely anything. I cannot tell what I suffered with my head. My husband got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken half of it I began to improve, and to-day I am another woman. The Pinkham's medicine has saved my life. I cannot praise it enough."

I cannot praise it enough."
M. A. DENSON, Millport, N.Y.

$5000 will be paid if this testimo-nial is not genulus. Lydia E. Pinkham Mediniae 00.

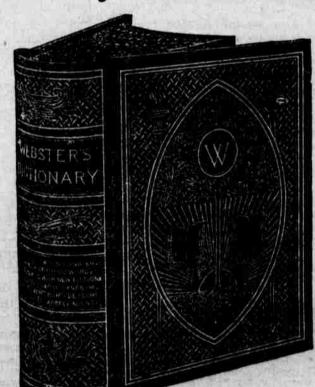

December 23 last, should be sighted off Fire island between 4 and 5 o'clock Saturday morning, February 22, and arrive at the Sandy Hook lightship at this time she would dock at about 10 o'clock. This time, however, is approximate, as the sailing from Cherbourg is probably given from her departure in the harbor. Records are probably be half an hour later.

FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Sports Will Shoot at Akron.

Canton sportsmen are interested in the Washington's birthday shoot of bers of the German embassy at Lon- the Akron Gun club will be for the championship of northern Ohio. The trophy will be a cup donated by the Akron organization. The shoot will that a large number of entries will be made. A handsom program of events and an announcement of the shoot, has been issued by the club, and the seven New York, Feb. 17.—The Kronprinz events enumerated should bring out

A Splendid Chance to Secure a Fine Dictionary.

Every subscriber to the Stark Co. Democrat who sends five paid in advance subscriptions to the Stark County (Semi-Weekly) Democrat, at the rate of one dollar per year each, will be given a handsome sheep bound Webster Dictionary of 1,572 pages, free of charge.

A copy of this work can be seen at the office of The News-Democrat.

Privilege is given to include renewal of your own subscription for one year.

THE NEWS-DEMOCRAT PUBLISHING COMPANY CANTON, OHIO.